Are you a photographer who is looking to give back to your community?

The Omega Community Development Corporation (Omega CDC) is looking for a volunteer photographer to take photos to promote the organization via its website. This will be a rewarding opportunity to contribute to a mission your care about while fine-tuning your skills.

About the Organization
The Omega CDC is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization established by the Omega Baptist Church in 1997. Our mission is to strengthen Northwest Dayton into a family supportive neighborhood through youth, family, and economic development. To accomplish our mission, we have successfully implemented several high-quality mentoring, educational, and life skills programs:
1) Mentoring (Boys, grades 5-8) at the Dayton Boys Preparatory School (third year)
2) Violence Prevention Education & ex-offender mentoring/case management through a partnership with Human Relations Council (ninth year)
3) Summer Literacy at Fairview Elementary (ages 6-12) (ninth year)
4) Afterschool Education Program at Fairview Elementary (Pre-K-6) (first year)
5) Work-Ready Life Skills Training (adults) at Fairview Elementary and United Rehabilitation Services (second year)

Responsibilities
Working with Omega CDC staff to discuss the images they require
Working in different locations (Ex: Omega CDC, Fairview Elementary, Dayton Boys Prep School, and Omega Baptist Church)
Taking pictures of individuals, families, and small groups
Communicating with photographic subjects, putting them at ease, encouraging them and directing them
Reviewing photographs to select the best

Skills
Creativity and a good eye for a picture
Ability to work independently
Ability to select / adjust camera, lenses and equipment settings including, aperture, shutter speed, and resolution to achieve creative photo effects
Good technical and photographic skills
Good communication and people skills
